

World Market Center names some Building C tenants

New arrivals include Lexington, Sligh, Huntington, Canadel, Avenue Six

-- Furniture Today, 7/31/2007 6:17:00 AM

AT THE MARKET — World Market Center officials have released the names of several tenants who have signed leases for its third showroom building, a 16-story, $550 million structure that will be ready for the July 2008 market. Key furniture exhibitors include Lexington, Sligh, Huntington, Canadel and Avenue Six, all of whom will have permanent showrooms in Las Vegas for the first time.

Three major exhibitors in Building A — Coaster, Standard and AICO — will move to larger spaces in the new Building C. Coaster will go from its current 13,429 square feet to 50,000 square feet, while AICO will grow from 22,000 square feet to 55,000 and Standard from 19,000 square feet to 33,000.

The top five floors of the new building will be devoted to furniture, while the 10th floor will house lighting showrooms and the ninth floor will have showrooms for holiday, floral and seasonal merchandise.

Floors six, seven and eight will be devoted to home accents, decorative accessories and rugs, and the first five floors will be an expansion of the Las Vegas Design Center, where spaces are open throughout the year and cater to interior designers.

Key floor covering tenants who have signed leases include Mohawk, Hellenic Rug Imports, Kas Oriental Rugs and Jaipur Rugs.