

5 New Skyscrapers in New York is a New Building Boom?

The Most Beautiful Skyline in the World is Changing Face Here are the Most Beautiful Buildings That Are Reshaping the Big Apple

June 26, 2017

Golden Moment for the New York architecture. It also says the NY Building Congress website: since 2000 the buildings in the city have tripled. And he could even speak of a new building boom that is reshaping one of the most beautiful and iconic skyline in the world. Fifteen Hudson Yards - 501 West 30th Street by Diller Scofidio + Renfro in collaboration with Rockwell Group It has the shape of a cloverleaf new high tower 88 floors not far from the High Line, an area of booming residential. Designed to achieve LEED Gold certification, it hosts 285 residences divided into 5 types, all with stunning views seamless and excellent finishing solution. Four floors have been reserved for the facilities (including swimming pool, gym, golf room, beauty salons). The price? From 3.8 to $ 32 million.

