

Kenneth P. Wong
Chief Operating Officer and Director of International Development

Kenneth P. Wong is Chief Operating Officer and Director of International Development of Related Companies where he is responsible for overseeing the day-to-day administrative, corporate and business functions, and the company's national and international expansion activities. Mr. Wong has over thirty years of diverse experience having overseen the development of a broad range of real estate assets from retail shopping centers to theme parks and planned communities both in the U.S. and international markets and representing well over $30 billion worth of assets. His executive experience includes both development and operating companies, both public and private, bridging the worlds of real estate, entertainment, design and technology.

Mr. Wong rejoined Related in March 2008 from Westfield America, Inc. where he served as President and was responsible for all operations, development, leasing, marketing and management of the $15 billion Westfield portfolio of approximately 65 properties, 9,000 retailers and over 20 active developments. Mr. Wong joined Westfield in 2003 from Related Companies.

Prior to joining Related, Mr. Wong spent nearly a decade as a senior executive at The Walt Disney Company where he held a number of key executive positions including President of the Disney Development Company and President of Walt Disney Imagineering. During this period, he oversaw the largest program of investment in Disney history, including theme parks, hotels, retail centers, cruise ships and the planned community of Celebration.

Earlier in his career, Mr. Wong was Executive Vice President of Himmel/Miller-Klutznick-Davis-Gray Co of Boston, a private real estate partnership. He also served in management positions with the Gerald D. Hines organization. Mr. Wong holds dual Masters degrees in Urban Studies and Architecture from Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and a Bachelors degree from the University of California at Berkeley. He is a member of the Urban Land Institute and a past Trustee of the International Council of Shopping Centers.
